

"Bon Voyage" Look Theme Of CDA Fashion Show

Fall Styles Featured at Social Event

A "Bon Voyage" fashion show will be the scene of activity for local women as the Catholic Daughters start off their fall social calendar. And what could be more appropriate than a fashion show? The thrill of fashions fall upon every woman.

The Catholic Daughters announced that their fashion show is set for Thursday, September 27, at 8 p.m. in the Nativity Parish hall.

Fashions of many varieties will be shown—suits for traveling, smart looking coats, afternoon and cocktail dresses, casual dresses and complete accessories. Garments will be made of wools, tweeds, flannels and fall cottons.

Sam Levy and Guys n' Dolls will outfit the models.

Models for the show are Mmes. Frank Cavanagh, Leonard Young, James Fornelli, William Hardesty and Charles Barrett.

Teenagers are: Catherine Schoot, Susan Gately, Marilyn and Joan Revell.

Children are: Gayle and Claudia Hardesty and Jimmy and Ronald Forester.

Mrs. Miller will be commentator for the show.

Mrs. Gerald Revell is in charge of the show, having arranged the complete program.

Refreshments will be served—a potpourri, salad dessert and coffee will be served.

The event is open to the public. Tickets may be purchased at the door of the Parish hall.

'The Big Take-Off'

The Catholic Daughters are getting ready for the big take-off for their fall fashion show. Using TWA to call attention to their special event are: Marilyn Revell, Mrs. Leroy Armstrong, Mrs. James Fornelli, Mrs. Frank Cavanagh and Mrs. Gerald Revell.

Fuchsia Society Chairmen Ratified

Installation ceremonies were held in the garden of C. O. Eipper, 25338 Pennsylvania, Lomita. It was one of the biggest affairs in a long time, 26 members and 39 guests were entertained with a pot luck dinner and it was also Lomita Fuchsia society's eleventh birthday so a big birthday cake was enjoyed by all.

Loren Paulsohn, president of the National Fuchsia society, led the salute to the flag.

Installing officer was Mrs. Emri Stoddard, member of the South Bay Fuchsia society and an affiliate member of the Lomita branch. Mr. Eipper, last year's president, accepted the high office of the club for the 1956-57 year. Mr. Eipper will be supported by Mrs. Ella Stiles, vice-president; Mrs. Pearl Riggles, secretary; Mrs. Edwin Stevens, treasurer; Lena Slaughter, delegate; Mildred Bain, alternate delegate; Verna Gluth, historian and Mary Shurgot, auditor.

Mr. Eipper presented each of last year's officers and board members with a lovely basket of Fuchsias. Those receiving baskets were: Verna Gluth, Pearl Riggles, Mary Shurgot, Ella Stiles, John Slaughter, Lena Slaughter, Mrs. Milton Young, Edna Eipper, Francis Alonge, Olive Frey, and Ruth Slack.

Past presidents who were present were Francis Barber, who now lives in Whittier, (she also was the club's first president 11 years ago), Mary Shurgot, Mr. Eipper and Pearl Riggles each received a Solum plant. Mrs. Emri Stoddard, the installing officer also was given a Solum plant.

Society members presented their past president, Mr. Eipper with a patio contour chair.

Loren Paulsohn, President of the National Fuchsia society, presented the Lomita branch with a Fiddle Leaf Fig plant.

The local Fuchsia club decided to give it to their publicity chairman, Ruth Slack, in appreciation of her work.

Mrs. Alice Martin of South

Gate showed colored slides of pretty gardens and some of last year's installation slides.

Lena Slaughter took pictures of this year's dinner and installation.

Door prizes went to: Francis Barber, Mary Bloom, Nell Addy, Emri Stoddard, Ella Stiles, and Emma Wittke.

Birthday plants went to: Clyde and Olive Frey, Ella Stiles, Emri Stoddard, Edna Eipper, and Earl Wittke.
